First Virginia Community Bank Files Application to Open Its Second Branch, 7900 Sudley Road, Manassas, Va.

FAIRFAX, Va., January 9, 2008 – First Virginia Community Bank, the region’s newest bank, announced plans to establish its second branch. The new branch will be located in Sudley Towers, 7900 Sudley Road, Manassas, Virginia.

David W. Pijor, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer said “Located on Business Route 234, Sudley Towers has been a landmark in Manassas and we are pleased to place our second banking office in this premium location. Our focus on business community, their owners and employees will be well served by the extensive array of banking products and services, such as remote deposit capture, on line banking, including e-statements, bill pay and cash management services. Subject to regulatory approval, we’re anticipating opening the office in the second quarter 2008.”

Mark C. Riley, President and Chief Operating Officer stated “An essential element in our branch expansion plans is to attract outstanding bankers in the markets that we serve. We are currently focused on assembling a great team in Manassas.”
